

EXCLUDING MORE THAN WAR:

7 PERILS ALSO EXCLUDED UNDER THE WAR EXCLUSION ON YOUR AVIATION INSURANCE POLICY

1. Any malicious act or act of sabotage

Any act that was intended by the perpetrator with the purpose of causing harm or sabotage. For example: A malicious act by a disgruntled employee.

2. Strikes

Employment related events leading to otherwise covered claims.

3. Civil Commotions

An uprising by a large number of people resulting in damage to persons or property.

4. Labor Disturbances

Disturbances such as picketing or handbilling leading to otherwise covered claims.

5. Riots

Whether or not related to the insured but causing property damage that would otherwise be covered by the policy.

6. Confiscation, nationalization seizure, restraint, detention, appropriation, requisition, for title or use or under the order of any Government...

If your aircraft is confiscated by the government of jurisdiction during a trip abroad for an alleged infraction that was not intended from your point of view.

7. Hi-Jacking

In addition, the War Write-Back will only provide $50M in coverage for people outside the aircraft. This is the case even if your overall limit of liability is higher than $50M. For companies needing higher limits, excess programs are available.

Purchasing the Limited Write-Back endorsement will allow your policy to cover these exposures plus War, Invasion, Acts of foreign enemies, Hostilities, Civil War, Rebellion, Revolution, Insurrection, Martial Law, etc...
