FROM PASSIONATE AVIATORS AT ANDREINI & COMPANY

Alejandro Galioto

Vice President, Director of Aviation

Alejandro Galioto heads Andreini & Company's Aviation Insurance Department. Previously he was an Assistant Vice President at Aon Aviation where he was a broker working for various clients including a major US airline, a major aerospace manufacturer, several corporate flight departments, airports and commercial aircraft operators.

Prior to working at Aon, Alejandro worked as an Aviation Claims Adjuster for AIG Aviation. In this capacity he handled claims ranging from major aviation disasters to managing litigation on behalf of clients that included several airlines, major airports and commercial aircraft operators.

He has a bachelor's degree from Kent State University in History with a minor in Aerospace Flight Technology and an MBA from Pepperdine University. Alejandro is a Commercial rated pilot and a Certified Flight Instructor.

In his free time Alejandro enjoys working on his race car and spending time with his wife and kids.

Alison Barker

Aviation Account Executive

After receiving her Private Pilot Certificate in 2001, Alison decided that she wanted to start a new career that would bring together her passion for aviation with her customer service and account management skills.

A perfect opportunity became available at Andreini & Company and she joined the firm as an Aviation Account Manager. Not long after becoming part of the Andreini aviation team; Alison's keen understanding of Aviation Insurance and excellent service skills earned her a promotion to Aviation Account Executive. Alison has mastered the art of quick response to each customer's needs while staying ahead of the curve in an ever changing industry.

Alison earned her Business Administration degree from Heald College. She is currently working on obtaining an Instrument Rating. Other interests include reading, hiking, spending time with her two teen-aged children and of course flying.
